

BILL MCGILL ART EXHIBITION

Rustenburg – Be one of the guests to an exhibition of paintings and book review at the Bill McGill Art Exhibition to be held at the Bush Willow Bread & Breakfast, on the R24 in Rustenburg on Friday, 18 May.

Declared art event of the year, the exhibition will also be a celebration of Bill McGill's 84th birthday and a collection of his wonderful paintings will be on display. Speaking to Platinum Weekly, McGill said he will exhibit 38 paintings on the evening, which is also the 20th annual exhibition held.

The event would not be complete without a review of the book 'Pilanesberg Stories and Pictorial Journeys' co-authored by McGill and Koos Herbst' now retired head warden of Pilanesberg. The illustrations in the book are also the work of McGill.

Herbst will open the exhibition with a talk on the plight of the rhinos in the Pilanesberg, a subject close to the heart of many who are concerned about the dwindling numbers.

To confirm your attendance, contact Bill McGill on 082-680 5890.
