

Tragedy struck on Mother's Day

Buffelspoort – Four children and two adults were killed after a vehicle caught fire on the N4 towards Buffelspoort on Mother's Day morning, 13 May. It is believed that the driver lost control of the car and crashed into a pillar before the vehicle burst into flames. ER24 arrived on the scene at 10:50 and realised that all the occupants of the vehicle was deceased. The woman who was killed in the accident, was pregnant. Three children, all believed to be between the ages of 6 to 9 years old, were also in the car. The woman, children and a man were declared dead on the scene by emergency services. We extend our sincerest condolences to the friends and families of the deceased.

Drug bust in Marikana

Marikana – The Christiana Police, acting on a tip-off, arrested two suspects in Marikana on Saturday 12 May, for dealing in drugs. According to lieutenant colonel Adèle Myburgh, police spokesperson, the first suspect, aged 26, was found in possession of 83,90 kg of dagga at his residence. "A second suspect was also arrested in the same neighbourhood. The 30-year old suspect was found in possession of 40 tablets suspected to be Mandrax," she said. The suspects appeared before the Bloemhof Magistrates' Court on Monday, 14 May. The provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Baile Motswenyane lauded the members and public for their collaboration that culminated in the arrests.

Drugs confiscated by the police.
