Bill McGill exhibition

Rustenburg – The name Bill McGill is synonymous with art. Even at 84, the Kwa-Zulu Natal born lover of animals and nature is not about to stop painting! McGill presented an exhibition that kept admirers of his work glued on the paintings at the Bushwillow B&B on Friday, 18 May. From the town of Greytown in the KZN, McGill was voted “Artist of The Year” by the North West Vroeë Landbou Unie in 2012. When his peers are walking with bended knees and walking sticks, McGill is navigating the bushes of the Pilanesberg. His other source of joy is caring and talking about the plight of the endangered Rhino. This, he does with co-author Koos Herbst, writer of the ‘Pilanesberg Stories and Pictorial Journey’, a captivating recollection of tales and pictures of wild animals.

DONKERHOEK CEMETERY CLEAN-UP

Rustenburg – The Democratic Alliance (DA) pulled up sleeves, cleaned and debushed the Donkerhoek Cemetery on Saturday, 5 May.

In respect, they also put flowers on some of the graves to give it colour!

This wonderful team goes out of their way to make the community a cleaner and better place. They would like to thank Peggy from King Copy that supplied the petrol for the bush cutters, Willie from Delarosa Cleaning that sponsored the soft drinks, Coastal Hire that sponsored the chainsaws and bush cutters, and Crazy Skips that provided the skips.

Theuns says he can proudly say #MytownMypride! Watch this space for the next clean-up date.

For more information or to get involved, contact Martha on 079-110 2087 or Theuns on 084-645 6607.

Let's clean!

Working together!
