

Father kills toddler

Mahikeng – A 25-year old man allegedly killed his 2-year old baby and later hanged himself in Moshawane village near Mahikeng on Sunday, 3 June.

In a statement to the press, the North West provincial commissioner of SAPS, lieutenant general Baile Motswenyane expressed his outrage and condemned the incident which happened at the end of Child Protection Week. According to reports, the father took the child from the mother for a visit. It is alleged that the father stabbed the baby several times with a knife and hanged himself with a chain. They were both found dead at approximately 14h00 on Sunday afternoon.

Helicopter crash claims two lives

Wreckage of the helicopter crash that killed two people.

Rustenburg/ Rooiberg – A helicopter crash claimed the lives of two men near Bela-Bela and Rooiberg on Friday, 1 June at approximately 11h30.

The helicopter was flying over Lumary farm when it crashed, killing Herman Wenhold (37) and Jacque Oelofse (31). They flew from Rustenburg and were on their way to Zebula Lodge, not far from where the wreckage was found. They died on impact.

When the police and paramedics arrived on scene, they discovered the bodies of the two men trapped in the wreckage. According to brigadier Motlafela Mojapelo, police spokesperson in Rooiberg, forensic and aviation investigations are underway.
