

CELL PHONE RING ARRESTED

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg police confiscated more than R100,000 worth of cell phones and tablets, and R100 000 cash from two Pakistan nationals, who are alleged to be involved in a cell phone theft ring in and around Rustenburg. The arrest follows a robbery at a cell phone shop in Safarituine on Wednesday 6 June. Acting on information, the police arrested two Pakistan nationals at their shop on Saturday 9 June and found them in possession of the stolen items and cash. Speaking to Platinum Weekly, sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson, said the owner of the shop was robbed of 25 cell phones and R30 000 cash. Mokgadi commended his three colleagues, lieutenant colonel Oupa Pule, captain Patrick Murunwa and captain Kabelo Sekanka, for working around the clock to bring the ring to book. "We request that you keep documents, proving ownership of your items, at all times. You need this to claim stolen items," Mokgadi said. In total, the two Pakistan suspects were arrested for stolen items: 102 cell phones, 28 tablets, 7 GPS gadgets and one video camera.

Stolen cell phones, tablets and cash.

Videos missing in child rape case

Rustenburg – The case in which the biological parents of an 8-old girl in Rustenburg were charged with rape and production of pornographic material earlier this year, was dismissed in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court. Rustenburg police spokesperson, sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, pointed out that the case was provisionally dismissed due to the unavailability of the cybercrime report and pornographic material. The 34-year old father and 25-year old mother of the 8-year old girl were charged with rape and the production and distribution of pornographic material of the child on Friday, 16 February.
