

100 pairs of shoes donated

Thanks to Professional Schoolwear and Mrs Rustenburg

Rustenburg – Mrs Rustenburg, Chantel Krause, and the team from Professional Schoolwear surprised 100 children from the David Brink Happie Hoekie with a brand-new pair of shoes and socks on Tuesday, 22 May. This generous donation to the value of R15 000 was part of the Professional Schoolwear reach-out programme and for many of these children, due to circumstance beyond their control, a pair of new school socks would not have been an option this year, let alone a brand-new pair of shoes! The David Brink Happie Hoekie is a feeding project where Mrs Rustenburg, with the help of her husband Stephan and father Bennie Goosen feed 165 needy children on a weekly basis and provide these kids with warm porridge every morning. With the help of Chantel Krause, Mrs Rustenburg 2017/2018, and Jakkie Goosen, who manage the entire project they were able to arrange extra pairs of socks and gloves for all the students, ensuring that these kids will be snug and warm on these cold winter days. To celebrate this gift Mrs Rustenburg's Stephan Krause and Bennie Goosen prepared a delicious treat for all 165 children and their generous sponsors. Mrs Rustenburg told the Platinum Weekly newspaper that it was a joy to be able to help these young kids: "The gratitude and excitement shown in the eyes of these young and innocent learners, as they came to the realization that the next day as well as the rest of this cold winter, they would have a warm pair of socks and a brand new, comfortable pair of school shoes... was priceless!" Chantel wished to thank all the sponsors who helped make this day possible: "First and foremost, to the guys at Professional Schoolwear, without their support and kind-heartedness, none of this would have been possible; and also to Naomi Pasino from Staansam Rustenburg, Adèle and her team, Marinel, Margaret, Wendy of LifeLine, Lariozette, Maritza, all the sponsors who wished to remain anonymous and Jessica for all the efforts that contributed to making this day possible. If you would like to get involved in helping with the next charity event, be sure to contact Mrs Rustenburg, Chantel Krause on 072-912 2434 or follow her on facebook: chantelkrause-Mrs

16th Cell C Take a Girl Child to Work Day

Rustenburg – Cell C PowerStation Rustenburg and Cell C Phokeng, hosted their 16th Take a Girl Child to Work Day on 24 May. The project is part of Cell C's flagship Corporate Social Investment (CSI) programme. According to regional channel consultant Alex Isaacs, it is rapidly becoming one of the important, life-changing days for schoolgirls around the country. The programme is aimed at exposing Grade 10 to 12 learners, to a day in a professional workplace, thereby showcasing the infinite career opportunities and choices available. Cell C's project had enjoyed unrivalled success as a platform, to address the needs and aspirations of high school girls. "As part of the facts that detail the development and relevance of Cell C's Take a Girl Child to Work Day, this initiative has had a powerful impact on the lives of more than one million girls thus far," said Alex. Cell C also encourages other companies to register their participation on the Cell C Take a Girl Child to Work Day website.
