

Dr Cathy Dzerefos, our school waste warrior

Rustenburg – This month, the PET Recycling Company (PETCO) – South Africa’s national body for PET recycling announced the winners of its annual PETCO awards. These are presented to industry and community achievers for their efforts to recycle plastic bottles in South Africa. Among the national winners was one recipient from Rustenburg.

Category: CEO Special Award – School Waste Warrior

Although this category was not a part of the original call for nominations, these individuals have made a significant impact on waste management and minimisation in South Africa through their work and are worthy of being recognised.

Winner: Dr Cathy Dzerefos, WESSA (Geelhoutpark Ext 6, Rustenburg)

Dr Dzerefos’s work centres around teaching healthier alternatives to burning waste and finding creative ways to re-use it to beautify school grounds or to sell. The schools Cathy supports have participated in 10 community clean-ups this year, and 13 earthworm farms have been set up at schools in tyres or towers gardens to re-use organic waste from school feeding schemes.

Rustenburg: Cell phone shops targeted

Rustenburg – The police is alerting cell phone shop owners of robbers that are targeting their stores in the wake of yet another robbery at the Waterfall Mall in Rustenburg on 18 June.

Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson, said that the owner of the Waterfall Mall store was held at gunpoint by five gun wielding suspects who tied his hands and feet with wire before making off with cell phones and cash.

“We urge shop owner to improve their security systems, have a back-up record of their cell phones stock in the shops and always be vigilant,” Mokgadi said.

The Waterfall Mall robbery follows the arrest of two Pakistan nationals who were found in possession of hundreds of cell phones, some of which were stolen from a shop in Safarituine weeks ago.

The police appeals to anyone with information regarding the robberies to contact detective warrant officer Brander on 063-142 5137 or 014-590 4258.
