HELP DOCTORS WITHOUT BORDERS

Two good Samaritans made a difference by donating to Doctors Without Borders. From left: Lerato Molutsi of Doctors Without Borders, Evelyn Tembo, Given Tjale, and Michelle Ndlovu, also of Doctors Without Borders.

Rustenburg – An international medical humanitarian organisation, fighting the spread of the Ebola virus, is on a fundraising drive at the Waterfall Mall in Rustenburg until Saturday 14 July.

Doctors Without Borders fundraiser Michelle Ndlovu told Platinum Weekly that there were, so far, a promising number of people coming to make donations.

Ebola is a human to human transmitted virus and causes acute and serious illness which is often fatal if left untreated.

"We are currently focused on the virus in the DRC where we are trying to stop it from spreading to the rest of the continent.

We are appealing to the community of Rustenburg to come forward to make a donation to this cause," Michelle said.

For any further enquiries or how to donate feel free to contact Michelle at 067 077 6707 or come visit them at their stall in the Waterfall Mall.

SSR'S AUCTION

CPF members who came to support the event. They are: Tonie Pretorius, Shawn Erasmus, Lezaan Erasmus, Gina Coetzee and Corné van der Byl.

Rustenburg – Staansam Rustenburg (SSR) held an auction on Saturday 7 July at the Cynthiana Hotel to raise funds, partly for the Community Policing Forum (CPF).

The funds given to the CPF were for the purchase of equipment which the organisation uses during patrolling, such as hand radios and torches. The day was busy day with food stalls and entertainment for the young and old. Creative Tiles donated a 'trellidor jail' which was a huge entertainment attraction for the children. Their parents would be locked in and the children had to pay up to bail them out. The bail money went to SSR.

Staansam Rustenburg wishes to thank: Hunters Pub and Grill, Burger Box, Milaneza, Sweets From Heaven, Crawdaddy's, Steakout Grill, Kenny Gee's, Die Melkstal, Crazy Skips, Coastal Hire, Intelldrive and Creative Tiles. A big thank you to Jean, Corné, Jurie, Lizelle, Antoinette and those who donated the goods to the auction.
