PHENOMENAL WOMAN AWARD

Jennifer Petersen, Phenomenal Woman of 2016/2017

Rustenburg – Reigning Phenomenal Woman of Rustenburg, Jennifer Petersen, is still most deserving of the title as her dancing school is thriving and her enthusiasm soaring! The title demands nothing, it merely acknowledges the contribution of women to the general good of our community.

The public is invited to nominate a lady who has excelled in her field and who gives back to the community. For more information, contact Lianél on 083-306 5095.

This is what Jennifer said about receiving the award:

"When I was nominated for this award, I was overwhelmed but at the same time proud to know that our community recognises women for their achievements. All the finalists who were nominated were honoured to attend such a prestigious event. This award is not only about the person, it inspires the women of Rustenburg to be their best selves. It is humbling to know that I am appreciated. As women, we must motivate not only other women, but also our community as a whole," said Jennifer. Jennifer wishes to invite all women to celebrate womanhood on 4 August.

She is the director of Jennifer Petersen (RTS) School of Ballet and Hip Hop Royal Academy of Dance. "This has been one of the most outstanding moments I will always treasure," she said. Everyone is invited to this year's Phenomenal Woman award ceremony at Hedgehog's Nest on Saturday, 4 August. The show starts at 14h00.

Tickets, at R290 per person, are available at Postnet, Jennifer's dance school and Lianél Schwartz Couture.

For more information, contact Lianél Schwartz Couture on 083-306 5095 or info@lianel.co.za.

The five finalists for this year are: Given Mmane, Millicent Shai, Hetta Havenga, Annelize Geldenhuys, and Suzy Novello.
