

ILLEGAL SHACKS DEMOLISHED IN ZINNIHAVILLE

Rustenburg/ Zinniaville – The sheriff of the court demolished 26 shacks in Zinniaville following a court order obtained by the municipality to evict illegal squatters on Tuesday 31 July.

When Platinum Weekly visited the area, some of the shack owners were busy removing their belongings and dismantling some of the structures.

In an interview, one of the shack owners admitted that they had been informed that they had occupied the land illegally, and that they must vacate the area.

Some of the shack dwellers said they would be returning to the backyard room they had been renting whilst others said they would have to go look for another place to erect their shacks. Some were unsure about their next move.

POTHOLES

‘Bear with us’, municipality pleads

A Platinum Weekly reader complained about the potholes, such as this one, on Rustenburg roads.

Rustenburg – Potholes around the city of Rustenburg are such a menace that one irritated reader wrote to Platinum Weekly asking whether anyone was doing anything about it at all. We duly referred the matter to the Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) for their response.

Spokesperson for the RLM Andrew Seome told Platinum Weekly that the municipality was aware of the state of the roads in the city, including the inconvenience caused by the construction of the roads for the public transport system currently underway.

“We have a turn-around strategy and we plead with the community to bear with us. This is not only about the roads, it is about ageing infrastructure, electricity and water,” Seome said.
