Happy Feet Ballet thanks you!

Rustenburg – Happy Feet Ballet hosted a youth day celebration fundraising on Saturday 16 June. There were incredible performances by the teachers and vocational dancers from Happy Feet Ballet and performances by their drama department. The Youth Dance Company of Tshwane sent six dancers as guest dancers for the day and were truly magnificent. The Happy Feet Institute, a non-profit organisation, was also introduced via video clip, which is available on the Happy Feet Ballet's Facebook page. This event served the purpose of raising funds for the Happy Feet. After the last performance, audience members were invited to take pictures with the ballerinas. When dessert was served, the dance floor was opened, and all the children got to party on the dance floor with their heroes – the ballerinas from the Youth Dance Company of Tshwane. The event was a huge success. The Happy Feet team would like to thank all their sponsors who helped make this event possible.

During the show, the audience was served an exquisite three course soup and sherry meal.

The kids left their seats to come and sit on the borders of the stage so that they wouldn't miss a single moment. Their admiration and complete amazement for the dancers was precious.

Charity race for Môrester

Rustenburg – Charissa Kruger, journalist at Platinum Weekly and associated with Platinum Raceway, organised a charity race for Môrester Child and Youth Centre on Saturday 28 July.

“It was a fun entertaining and heart-warming evening. They gathered quite a lot of goodies at the gate and the kids of Môrester enjoyed it very much. The rock climbing team and ‘Big Mama’ also entertained young and old. The team would like to thank each driver and spectator who donated items. A special thanks to the food stalls who gave the little ones’ food, cooldrinks and something sweet. Watch this space for the next round of ovals,” said Charissa.
