TWO ARRESTED FOR ILLEGAL FIREARMS

Madikwe – Illegal firearms were confiscated by the police from two suspects in Madikwe on Monday 20 August.

Police spokesperson sergeant Kelebogile Moleko said the suspects, aged 41 and 50, were arrested by the police on the Tlokweng road following a tip-off that they were in possession of illegal firearms. They confiscated five firearms, three handguns, one shotgun and a rifle. The suspects were arrested after failing to account for the firearms. Sergeant Moleko said the suspects were due to appear at the Madikwe Magistrates' Court on 22 August.

The North West provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Baile Motswenyane applauded the police for their swift reaction.
