

Upgraded black belts for brother and sister

Rustenburg – Training from the age four, this brother and sister has accumulated numerous achievements as karateka both on the competition floor and as top-class instructors. Sensei Almarie Venter completed her grading to a second degree black belt and Sensei Pieter Venter completed his grading to a third degree black belt from 6 to 8 July. They are some of the highest ranking fighters in the Traditional Styles Known Knowledge In Action Federation (TSKKIA) in their respective divisions. Sensei Pieter is an instructor at the Tokon Shotokan Karate Club based in Rustenburg and Sensei Almarie is the pre-school instructor at the club. Almarie completed her grading under the supervision of Shihan Albert Venter, founder of Tokon Shotokan Karate Academy International. For more information on this and other gradings, contact the TSKKIA headquarters at 082 463 1073 or visit www.tskkia.co.za.

AND THE WINNERS ARE...

Franco Cloete and Danielle du Plooy, 2018's Miss and Mr Bergsig Academy.

Rustenburg – The annual Mr and Miss Bergsig Academy was held on Wednesday 15 August. Themed the themed four seasons, the contestants were judged on eye contact, outfits, general presentation and posture. The judges were 2018 Mrs Rustenburg Chantel Krause, Unathi Nare, Chimonay Botha and David Wilson. Franco Cloete and Danielle du Plooy were crowned as this year's Mr and Miss Bergsig Academy.

HAPPY CUSTOMERS, CHEERFUL STAFF AND BOOMING SALES

Staff at Border Plumbing and Hardware gave the signal to customers that Spring could not have come at a better time!

Rustenburg/Tlhabane – Not often does a hardware store sells its stocks out at ridiculously low prices and goes on to entertain both customers and staff to a braai especially on the first day of Spring. During an interview with the Platinum Weekly the store manager said it's a great honour to celebrate this milestone with their friends, clients and fellow community members. "This was our way to thank the community for 22 years of support." Border Plumbing and Hardware, next to the Ferncrest Hospital in Tlhabane, had a one-day crazy discount in celebration of its new look. The plumbing and hardware store by all accounts made its customers felt at home with the massive sales offered on the day.

Border Plumbing and Hardware ready for the braai in celebration of its new look and special discounts offered to customers on 1 September 2018.
