GRENSWAG HIGH SCHOOL

ACCIDENT WAITING TO HAPPEN

Grenswag High School learners holding hands as they face oncoming traffic. In the past month, two scholars have been involved in accidents on this dangerous stretch of road.

Rustenburg – Some students of Grenswag High School must face unnecessary danger on a daily basis: Rustenburg roads! The constant onslaught of traffic whilst pupils are trying to cross this extremely dangerous road, has teachers, parents and pupils biting their nails and holding their breath.

In the past month, two students were hit by vehicles on this road (R510), but no safety precautions have been implemented. With no speedbumps, stop signs or pedestrian crossings in front of the school, this stretch of road is potentially a proverbial accident waiting to happen. Read more on page 2.
