Suspended aeroplane rescue

The rescue operation became more and more dangerous as the wind started picking up and the precariously suspended plane could tear loose at any moment. According to MSAR, the occupants were secured in the plane by their seatbelts. A very brave rescuer, Rob Thomas, made his way along the cable to reach the aircraft. The most critical part of the rescue was to carefully transfer the occupants from their seats to the rescue harness and the delicate prepositioning until they were hanging on the cable free from the aircraft fuselage. Pieter and Mary escaped with no major injuries.

Elderly couple brutally attacked on farm

Rustenburg – In the early hours of Thursday morning 4 October, Jan (82) and Suzi (78) Scheepers were brutally attacked on their smallholding on the Avondale runoff from the Koster road, just outside Rustenburg. The perpetrators gained access to the house through a bedroom window. The couple was bound and beaten before the assailants fled with the Scheepers' silver Isuzu bakkie. It is still unknown exactly what was stolen from the house. The victims finally managed to untie themselves and raised the alarm. Their neighbours immediately came to their rescue and summoned the police. The couple was rushed to Peglerae hospital. Both sustained serious head injuries but are in a stable condition. The public is requested to please be on the lookout for the silver Isuzu bakkie with registration plate number HVT273NW that was stolen from the couple. The brake lights of the bakkie are out of order. Four dogs were poisoned on a nearby smallholding. At time of going to print no further information was available. Police spokesperson Major Adèle Myburgh confirmed that a farmworker that lived close to the couple was also attacked. A case of house robbery is being investigated...
