

2018 RUGBYKAMPIOENSKAPPE

SA vs NZ

Op 'n volgepakte Loftus moes duisende toeskouers toesien hoe die All Blacks met 'n ongelooflike terugveg-poging die toets letterlik in die laaste sekondes in hul guns swaai om uiteindelik 32-30 as oorwinnaars van die veld te stap. Hierdie toets was kliphard en beide spanne het hul lywe op die spel geplaas. Die Kiwi's het gewys hoekom hulle die voorste span ter wêreld is met hulle beheer op die veld! Met twintig minute se speelyd oor was Loftus in 'n party mood soos lanklaas gesien! Maar toe kom die aanslag van die Kiwi's wat baie SA supporters se harte gebreek het. Om met 13-30 agter te loop en 32-30 te wen wys dit is 'n span met groot ghoenas my maat. Die Bokke was werklikwaar vir sestig minute in beheer van die game, maar die taktiese skuiwe van die bank af was hulle ondergang. Daarbenewens het die All Blacks plaasvervangers weer nuwe vuur in die spel geblaas en hier het Rassie en kie nog baie werk. Daar is egter 'n nuwe positiewe vibe wat te bespeur is in die Bokkamp wat duisende Bok ondersteuners meer gerus sal laat slaap. Vir eers hoef daar nie nou oor die All Blacks getob te word nie... Die Bokke het 'n jaareinde toer en gaan vier toetse in die Britse Eilande speel in November... teen die bleekbene wat wraak soek. Nag ou groene...

NW claims 5th spot at Spur Schools MTB

Schools in North West delivered a highly credible performance against strong opposition from South Africa's biggest regions at the 2018 Spur Schools MTB League Inter-schools final in Magaliesburg on 6 October. Riders from North West achieved a total of four podium places: one first place and three second places. The first-placed rider was Brendan van Eerden (Potchefstroom Gimnasium). The second-placed riders were: Christiaan Smith (Potchefstroom Gimnasium); Jone van Eeden (Potchefstroom Gimnasium); and Willie van Eck (Rustenburg). This year the North West attracted a total of 791 entries and completed 1 851 laps and 9 674km for the season. "It's been a jam-packed league and we are so proud of our riders, each one of them trained really hard and gave the 2018 season their absolute all. There's already talk of the 2019 league, but for now, we're still enjoying the fact that we did so well against the more powerful regions," said Deon Steyn, race director for North West region.

RCC, riding to make a difference

Rustenburg – The Karoo to Coast mountain bike challenge event took place on Saturday 22 September. The Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) had the most participants for this event with a total of 48 members taking part. The Karoo to Coast is a 100km mountain bike challenge stretching from Uniondale to Knysna in support of helping the visually impaired. Through this event, the organisation has managed to financially assist in 4307 cataract operations, 19 cornea replacements, two operations for people born with defective vision and 37 children with squints. About 60 guide dogs were also donated with the help of SA Guide Dog Association and an average of 300 pairs of spectacles are donated every year through the Karoo to Coast operation. The RCC is proud to have been part of this amazing event to help the visually impaired.

RCC members participated in the Karoo to Coast mountain bike challenge.
