Rustenburg – Rustenburg Lions Club held its second annual art exhibition at the Rustenburg local library on 4 October where young artists had the opportunity to display their talent. This competition formed part of an exciting international arts competition. The theme for this year's competition was kindness matters. Entries were received from learners of Laerskool Protea Park, Laerskool Vastrap, Laerskool Rustenburg, Kloof View Primary School, Rutang Primary Education Centre, Lebone II College of the Royal Bafokeng and Fields College.

the 31st annual Lions International Peace Poster Contest. Lions Clubs International is sponsoring the contest to emphasize the importance of world peace to young people everywhere. The International Peace Poster Contest was open to all learners between the ages of 11 and 13.

With regards to the theme, 'kindness matters' 12-year old Ayanda from Rustenburg: "A friend is showing kindness by giving a helping hand to a someone in need". Ayanda and the other top five Rustenburg entrants will represent Rustenburg on district-level and hopefully advance to the following rounds.

In Rustenburg's preliminary competition round, the second place went to Minke Grobler from Laerskool Proteapark, third place to Liz Hernandez from Fields College, fourth place to Micheal Visser from Laerskool Rustenburg and fifth place went to Robyn-Lee Wentzel also from Laerskool Proteapark. Since its international inception, South Africa has delivered two winners: André de Villiers in 1998/99 and Joul Greek in 2014/15.
