ARE YOU DISTRIBUTING PORN?

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – Following the circulation of a video on social media wherein two local girls are seen forcefully undressing a victim, the police in the province would like to urge members of the community to stop distributing pornographic material.

IT DOES NOT RAISE AWARENESS – IT IS THE DISTRIBUTION OF PORNOGRAPHY AND IT IS ILLEGAL!

The suspects aged 18 and 19 were arrested on Friday, 12 October for sexual assault. A case of common assault was opened after the incident was reported at Phokeng police station.

Police spokesperson brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone confirmed that the suspects were granted R500 bail each after appearing before the Bafokeng Magistrates' court on Monday, 15 October. They will appear in court again on 15 November. Charges in terms of the Criminal Law (Sexual Offences and Related Matters) Amendment Act, 2007 (Act No. 32 of 2007) are also being investigated.

The police, Community Police Forum (CPF), and an official from Rustenburg family violence, child protection and sexual offences unit visited the school in Luka village where the suspects are attending, on Thursday 18 October to educate students about sexual abuse and other issues including distribution of pornographic material.

Members of the community are advised to use social media platforms responsibly and to not share privileged information or explicit content. Report or block all inappropriate content.
