Teacher dies in car crash

Rustenburg - A horrific accident in Hartebeesfontein near Klerksdorp claimed the life of one educator and injured a second on Thursday, 25 October.

The two teachers from Christiana School for the Blind were travelling from Christiana to Rustenburg, to attend a training session for learners with severe to profound intellectual disabilities (LSPID).

One of the teachers died at the scene of the accident and the other was rushed to Tshepong Hospital, near Klerksdorp.

North West department of Education and Sport Development member of the executive council Sello Lehari said: "On behalf of the department I wish to convey our deepest condolences to the family, colleagues and learners of Christiana School for the Blind on the untimely passing of their educator. I further wish a speedy recovery to the educator who has been admitted to hospital." We extend our sincerest condolences to the teacher's family and friends.

AT LEAST IT'S SOMETHING

Rustenburg – In an effort to improve safety for learners of Hoërskool Grenswag who need to cross the R510 road, the crossing was finally painted by the Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) on Tuesday 30 October so that it can be more visible to motorists. In an interview with Platinum Weekly DA councillor for ward 18, Martha Lerm, said: "There is so much more that needs to be done; safety humps and traffic lights need to be put in place and at this stage RLM can't confirm when this will happen. But each step, is a step in the right direction. I will continue to pursue this mission to ensure our children are safe."
