Third GLS in Rustenburg!

Praise and worship are essential for the heart. Photo: Charl du Plessis (snap2art@gmail.com)

Rustenburg – Agapé Gemeente hosted its Global Leadership Summit (GLS) 2018 on 19 and 20 October.

According to the organisers, Willow Creek Association, the summit was presented via videolink to about 135 countries in 60 languages around the world. The summit was live-streamed in 20 cities around South Africa. The summit was lined up with internationally renowned speakers, giving guidance about leadership within various sectors.

The 13 speakers included founder and senior pastor of The Potter's House TD Jakes; leadership expert and best-selling author John Maxwell, founder of Econet Group Strive Masiyiwa; restaurateur and TIME Magazine's 100 most influential people Danny Meyer; and co-founder, amp and senior pastor at Life Church Craig Groeschel.

After refreshments and lunch break, the audience was entertained with the wonderful music of the Agapé band and special solo drama performances.

According to senior pastor at Agapé, Dawie de Koker, GLS is fast becoming the premier leadership development event in Rustenburg.
