GIVE A LITTLE, HELP A LOT

A few of Hospice Rustenburg's team members.

Rustenburg – Hospice Rustenburg is a non-profit organization established in 1997 to provide palliative care to patients with life threatening illnesses and to support their families.

True to the Hospice slogan, no end to caring, Hospice Rustenburg has been serving and caring for patients of the greater Rustenburg community and Bojanala District and their families for 21 years!

Hospice supports families through difficult periods and patients with debilitating pain and symptom control, assisting in making life and living pain free. Patients and their families are also educated about the importance of medication adherence, illness progression as to prepare and plan ahead as well as counselling and bereavement care.

You can support Hospice Rustenburg in caring for the community, volunteer to assist with painting the Hospice house, pest control at the Hospice house, electrical maintenance, vehicle maintenance and services, fuel and tyre expenses of vehicles used in home-based care, or volunteering at the shops.

Any donations of non-perishable food, toiletries, clothing and furniture, or monetary donations will be deeply appreciated.

Hospice Rustenburg is a public benefit organisation and donors can be furnished with section 18a certificate.

Please contact Elize at 014 592 8925 for any additional enquiries.
