

Happy Feet Ballet – junior demo exams

Rustenburg – Rainbows and unicorns could never compete with the sweetness-overload that is the Happy Feet Ballet demo-exams. The three to five-year old little ballerinas were dressed in sparkly tutus, beautiful hairpieces and glamorous smiles as they danced their hearts out on 8 and 9 November at the NG Protea Park Church. At this age, dancers are encouraged to explore music and learn to control their movement all the while having heaps of fun. Annelie Botha, teacher, was thrilled to share this experience with them and has high hopes and much love for her little stars.

HSBC SEWES 2018 KAAPSTAD

In Kaapstad gaan duisende toeskouers eerder groot as huistoe ou blitsie! Dit is wonderlik om te sien hoe oud en jonk, slank en rond, mooi en leik... in hulle kostuums opdaag vir die groot skouspel.

Vir die Suid-Afrikaanse toeskouers was daar darem 'n troosprys nadat die Blitse die Kiwi's om die derde plek kon klop. Fidi! het as die wenspan feesgevier nadat hulle die VSA in die finaal getroef het met 29-15.

Die Eagles is regtig een van die groot honde in vanjaar se reeks en loop ook nou voor op die puntetabel.

Die Blitse was so amper daar, maar een blaps op hulle verdediging het hulle goud gekos. Hopelik sal ook al die beseerdes weer fiks wees vir die derde been aanstaande jaar. Die Sewes Ruggas vir 2018 word nou vir eers tot 'n halt geroep.

Nag blits...
