"In Association with North-West Debt Counselling"

Children crossing the busy R510 road in front of Hoërskool Grenswag.

Rustenburg – After various complaints and attempts by Democratic Alliance (DA) councillor for ward 18 Martha Lerm, to help students safely cross the road at Hoërskool Grenswag, the R510, progress is in sight. Proper Dura Bump traffic calming devices will be put in place to assist in slowing down speeding vehicles. Unfortunately, the traffic light that was installed by the Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) is yielding very little results as is out of order most of the time. In an interview with Platinum Weekly, Martha confirmed that she has also requested that the traffic light be removed and be replaced by a stop sign to avoid collisions with vehicles that blatantly ignore the red or mostly out of order light. All possible preventive measures will be in place soon, but the responsibility to keep an accident from happening now lies in the hands of motorists.

RLM raid yields success

Hawks and RLM personnel clamping down.

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) in partnership with the Hawks (Investigative Unit of the South African Police Service) on Monday 14 January embarked on a special operation, part of RLM's safe and clean city campaign. The raid focused on uprooting crime in the city involving scrap yards operating illegally and suspected of dealing in stolen copper cables and materials allegedly stolen from Eskom's infrastructure. The operation uncovered other illegal activities and practises inconsistent with the law, illegal trading in different business fields, including stores selling expired goods and food products. The municipality encourages the community to participate in the campaign by reporting criminal activities to the police.

Police make an explosive arrest

Brits – A 30 year-old suspect appeared before the Brits Magistrates' Court on Monday 21 January, for the unlawful possession of explosives.

The court appearance is subsequent to his apprehension on Thursday, 17 January, at Bapong, near Mooiooi by members of Crime Intelligence in collaboration with the Tactical Response Team (TRT).

According to police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani, the police acted on intelligence received regarding explosives around the area of Bapong and caught the suspect at a local food outlet. His backpack was searched and explosive items such as shock tubes, a safety starter as well as expogel was found. The police proceeded to his residence where more explosive material, utilised in industrial mining, were seized.

The North West provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Baile Motswenyane, lauded the police for leaving no stone unturned in ensuring that criminal activities of all genre are uprooted from society.

Jewellery thief arrested

Stolen items found on the suspect.

Rustenburg – After following up on a tip, the Rustenburg's Crime intelligence personnel apprehended 30 year-old Sekwati Samuel Hlalele on suspicion of theft on 14 January. The investigation confirmed that an amount of R5 000 was withdrawn from the complainant's bank account at Boitekong Mall which led police to a tavern in Kanana where the suspect was arrested.

According to police spokesperson captain Elsebé Augoustides, the suspect later confessed that he sold the following items: a PDP PlayStation, smart watch and an HD camera in Boitekong. Some of the other items were allegedly sold to at a local saloon. On arrival, the shop keeper was wearing one of the rings. He was arrested for possession of stolen property. The following stolen articles were also found in his possession: two watches, nine rings, three silver necklaces, a gold necklace, a camera and a black tablet.

Members of the Crime Intelligence and Boitekong Detectives are applauded for a job well done.
