Rustenburg – Members of the Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) had an eventful weekend!

On Saturday 26 January, the second edition of the XCOSA cup was held at the Voortrekker Monument. Participants completed several laps in their respective age groups. Congratulations to Caitlin Thompson, crowned the winner in the female youth category. Willie van Eck took the title of the under 23 division, and Antonie Lit came in fourth in the junior male division.

The Ottosdal Draf & Trap also took place on 26 January; Michelle Birks and Johan van der Merwe participated in the 40km road race and Greg Taylor competed in the 84km road race.

Various RCC members also took part in the Value Logistic Fast One 97km road race in Meyerton on 27 January. In this rave, well done to Braam Koekemoer, Francois Grobler, Gregg Taylor, Albie Labuschagne, Sheldon Kukard, Anthony Kukard, Zelda du Pisani, Herman de Bruin, Marlene Human, Denise Koekemoer, Shyla Naude, Nadine Espach, Derick Markus, Christo van Staden, Benita Nienaber, Gerrie Koekemoer, Danie Lombaard, Alta Lombaard, John-William Lang, Johnny Lang, Johannes Hattingh and Johannes Kusel for their excellent times achieved during the race.

SOOS VISSE IN DIE WATER

Rustenburg – Die swimmers van Hoërskool Rustenburg (RHS) het op 23 Januarie behoorlik hul slag gewys. Die kompetisie was sterk, die swimmers se talent was duidelik sigbaar en die rekords het – letterlik – gespat.

Baie geluk aan die volgende leerders wat onderskeidelik as junior en senior Victor en Victrix ludorum aangewys is: junior Victrix ludorum Caitlyn Viljoen, senior Victrix ludorum Jana Coetze, junior Victor ludorum Pieter Coetze en senior Victor ludorum Janco Viljoen.
