

TWO SUSPECTS IN THE WILLEMSE MURDER ARRESTED

The late Ella Willemse.

Rustenburg – Two of the three suspects in the horrific murder of the 83-year-old Ella Willemse were arrested by members of the Rustenburg Cluster Task Team on Wednesday, 6 February. According to police spokesperson captain Elsabé Augoustides, two unemployed males were arrested not far from where the victim lived. The victim was brutally assaulted on 17 January and suffered multiple skull fractures. As reported in the Platinum Weekly issue of 25 January, she had to undergo an operation to remove a piece of bone, lodged in her brain. On the morning of 24 January, Ella sadly passed away. Some of the stolen items were found in the suspects' possession. The suspects will appear before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Friday 8 February. The investigating officer warrant officer Jannie van der Walt and other members of the Cluster Task Team once again proved their relentless investigative skills, that resulted in these arrests.

16-YEAR OLD STABBED IN FARM ATTACK

Mooiνοοι – A 16-year old child was the victim of another farm attack on the evening of Sunday 3 February. According to police spokesperson captain Aafje Botha the 16-year old heard glass breaking and upon investigation found two suspects trying to break into the house. He fought relentlessly before the suspects fled. Nothing was stolen but the victim was stabbed and sustained head injuries. He is in a stable condition. A case of aggravated assault and attempted murder is being investigated.

ELDERLY WOMAN BRUTALLY KILLED ON FARM

North West – A 69-year old woman was brutally killed on a farm in Vorstershoop on the morning of Friday 1 February. The deceased was discovered by her husband around 08:00 with a fatal head wound. The murderers also kidnapped the deceased's domestic worker and fled with stolen firearms in the couple's brown Toyota Landcruiser. The domestic worker was later found unharmed after the suspects crossed the Botswana border. According to police spokesperson colonel Adèle Myburgh, the Botswana police are giving their full cooperation in finding and arresting the criminals.
