

A ‘HOLE IN ONE’ FOR HOPE!

Reverend Nardus Enslin standing at the spot where he used to preach from the pulpit.

Rustenburg – The once beautiful church building of Hervormde Gemeente Rustenburg-Kloof is a sad reminder of that fateful day when this beacon of the community was reduced to ash and bare walls on 25 November 2018. But hope stands strong! In an interview with Platinum Weekly this week, reverend Nardus Enslin said: “Our congregation was devastated. A massive fire gutted our church – a place where we gather for God, a place of comfort and a beacon of hope to the homeless. We will rebuild. It is heart-breaking to think that our church was reduced to rubble. We know a rebuild will not happen overnight, but we trust that God will bless us to restore our place of worship where we will continue to glorify His holy name.” The congregation and reverend Enslin are not backing down. They are going to host a golf day to raise funds for the repair and rebuild of their church. They will appreciate any assistance from the community through participation, donations, sponsorships or prizes for the day. The golf day is set for Friday 1 March at the Rustenburg Golf Club and will start at 10:00. Kevin Leo will be performing during the evening. To sponsor a tee amounts to R2 000 and to sponsor a hole is R1 000. Any other donations are welcome. The costs to join in on the fun is R3 000 per four ball, golf cart and halfway-lunch included. The format of this game will be better-ball-scramble-drive 2 score, 2 count, with exciting prizes for a hole-in-one on number three. ## Dis nette erg!

Brits – Piet Aggenbach en sy vriende het op 6 Februarie uitgesien na ‘n heerlike dag op die Roodekoppies dam. Die oggend het goed afgeskop totdat die boot waarmee hul op die dam gevaar het aan iets vasgehak het. Na verdere ondersoek het hulle egter vasgestel dat daar ongeveer 250m net onwettig in die dam gespan is om visse mee te vang.

Hulle het dadelik die nette verwyder. Die nette was vol visse – reeds dood. Daar was selfs ‘n waterskilpad in een van die nette vasgevang. In ‘n onderhoud met Platinum Weekly het Piet gesê: “Dit was aaklig om die visse en ander waterdiere so te sien. Dit is onmenslik om die nette te span waar waterdiere hulself vasvang en ‘n stadige dood sterf omdat hulle nie kan ontsnap nie.”

Net ‘n paar van die visse wat in die net vasgevang was.

MISS TEEN WORLD VISITS MÔRESTER CHILD AND YOUTH CARE CENTRE

Rustenburg – The reigning Miss Teen World, Cayla van Eeden, visited Môrester Child and Youth Care Centre in Rustenburg on Saturday 2 February. “Upon arrival, we were met by a dozen little smiling faces. The friendly staff gave us a tour of the facility and introduced us to the children,” said Cayla. Cayla heard about Môrester from a friend in Rustenburg and decided to pay them a visit. She donated baby clothes, lucky packets and snacks as well as a bag for each child filled with toiletries and stationery. “We would like to urge the community to keep supporting the home, they are doing an amazing job looking after 60 children at the moment. You can also give your time to visit the children,” said Cayla. If you want to donate goods like clothes, toiletries, food and toys, contact Elize van Eeden on missteeworld2018@gmail.com or 074 720 1215.

We all scream for ice cream!

Rustenburg – In Touch Therapy Equine is proud to present the 2019 Ice Cream Festival. This event will take place on 2 March at Hunter’s Rest and tickets will be available at the gate - R60 per adult and R30 for children under 13. You can expect dancers, music, competitions and horse riding. The highlight of the event will be Mr and Miss Ice Cream Festival. This event will serve as a fundraiser for In Touch Therapy. In Touch provides a unique form of therapy for people of various ages and needs. Horse therapy improves muscle tone, breathing and posture as well as balance, coordination, motor functions and self-confidence. It also aids people with autism, dyslexia, differently abled and people with physical disabilities. Anyone struggling with trauma, physical and emotional challenges or who just want to relax will benefit from this form of therapeutic horse riding. Riders’ ages range from a mere 18 months old to sixty-seven. In Touch Therapy is a Section 21 company, reaching out to people who will benefit from this form of therapy. If you would like to be part of this festival, there are stands available without electricity for R500 and with electricity for R700. For more information contact Karen Spies on 084 422 2377 or karenspies@telkomsa.net.
