

RAPIST ARRESTED, BRITS

Brits – A 21-year old suspect was arrested only a few hours after allegedly committing a house robbery and rape in Soutpansdrift near Brits on Wednesday, 6 February. A 41-year old woman was cleaning her house at about 09:00 when the suspect entered and overpowered her. According to police spokesperson Colonel Adèle Myburgh, the suspect allegedly threatened the victim with a knife, assaulted and tied her up with shoe laces before raping her. He then fled the scene with the victim's cellular phone and a radio. The victim managed to walk to a nearby road, where she was assisted by security officials on patrol. Through information received from the community, the police arrested the suspect at his house at about 19:00 and recovered the victim's stolen cellular phone. The suspect appeared before the Brits Magistrates' Court on Friday, 8 February, for house robbery and rape. Kabang Malatjie, the suspect, will remain in custody until his next court appearance on Friday 15 February.

RAPIST BEHIND BARS

Rustenburg – The Bafokeng Regional Court sentenced Joseph Basoli Serole to 25 years behind bars on 5 February. In May 2014, Basoli threatened his ex-girlfriend at a local pub in Chaneng village near Sun City with a firearm. Her boyfriend at the time tried to intervene but was severely assaulted by Basoli. Basoli then forced his ex-girlfriend at gunpoint to accompany him to his place of residence, where he raped her. He was sentenced to three years for kidnapping, 15 years for rape, three years for the illegal possession of a firearm and twelve months for grievously body harm. Count one and three are to run concurrently. The SAPS Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences Unit (FCS) commander lieutenant colonel Mosidi Mafora praised detective warrant officer Lebogang Mabala for the conviction, a speedy arrest and making sure Basoli never received bail due to compelling evidence he acquired even before the trial commenced.

Tip-off leads to arrest

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Police arrested five armed suspects on Tuesday 12 February after a community tip-off of suspicious activity close to the taxi rank. According to police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, the vehicle that the suspects were traveling in, a white Nissan NP200, was searched by police who found illegal firearms and ammunition. A case of possession of illegal firearms is being investigated.
