

Love is in the air

Rustenburg – To celebrate the month of love, Platinum Weekly had the opportunity to interview Mrs Rustenburg Celicia Richter and her husband Bernard Richter to find out more about their love story. Hedgehog's Nest created the perfect romantic backdrop for this interview and had their renowned culinary students treat the couple with delicious delicacies.

Celicia and Bernard met in 2013 when Celicia was on an epic quest to find the WIFI password of the commune she was living in, and the rest is a modern-day fairytale.

Bernard said he remembers the very first time he saw her. She was wearing a university branded t-shirt and the ugliest pair of orange pants he had ever seen. "In that exact moment, I knew she was the woman I wanted to spend the rest of my life with."

The couple have been married for almost two years and are proud to announce that they are expecting their first bundle of joy.

The Richters love spending quality time together. When asked about the perfect date, Bernard said: "Create your very own wine tasting. Go to the nature reserve and at each lookout point, stop and taste a new bottle of wine paired with a fine cheese. It is an inexpensive adventure close to home."

Celicia said: "Love is in the little things. It's about doing things like cooking dinner when your counterpart works late."
