

A picture is worth a thousand words

Ground Agama with Attitude by Gerrie van Vuuren.

Rustenburg – Photographers of the Rustenburg Photographic Society had the opportunity to showcase their photos at their monthly meeting on 20 February. In the open category senior group for the February meeting, Gerrie van Vuuren was announced as the winner with his photo ground agama with attitude. In the open category junior group, Francois van Wyk's photo yellow eyes was announced as the winner.

The Photographic Society would like to share the following tips with their fellow artists: Don't compare yourself to others, step outside of your comfort zone, learn to know and handle your equipment and most importantly... enjoy what you do!

The society meets every third Wednesday of every month at the NG Proteapark at 18:30. For more information contact club chairperson Simon Fletcher on 082 371 9867 or vice chairperson Ronel Broderick on 082 451 2999.

Yellow Eyes by Francois van Wyk.

DinosAlive now open

MORATI
Star Hide-Away (Mafikeng) vir:
Wittebrood naweke
Herdenkings
Hernuwing van beloftes
Enige spesiale geleentheid
Vinnige naweek wegbreke
Kom kuier by ons.
Facebook: moratistar of bel 083 997 7776
vir persoonlike diens.

Mekyla Venter excavating for dinosaur fossils.

Hanmarie van Heerden riding a T-rex

Rustenburg – The DinosAlive exhibition officially opened its doors to the public on 23 February. This showcase of the majestic creatures of pre-historic times can be seen at Platinum Square, in the old Deon's Wired store-front. DinosAlive is an interactive tour and playpark – and tells the story of dinosaurs from the Mesozoic Era. The exhibition will be open every Friday, Saturday and Sunday until 1 April.

Neng kapa neng. Jang kapa jang. Max up!

Max Pleasure. Max Protection. Max Quality