Human Communications 146036

Rustenburg – The cyclone, Idai, which hit Mozambique, Malawi and parts of Zimbabwe on Saturday 16 March, left hundreds of people dead and thousands of families displaced. According to the United Nations (UN), the current death toll in Zimbabwe is 259. A further 16,000 households have been displaced, as at 22 March. A relief effort was initiated and Rustenburg residents are doing their bit and are appealing to the community to assist them with second-hand clothes and donations for people affected by cyclone Idai.

In an interview with Platinum Weekly, Emmanuel Musonza, a coordinator of relief efforts in Rustenburg, said: “We have duly set up a drop-off centre at 14 Von Wielligh Street. Donations in cash and kind are welcome, especially second-hand clothing, cooking utensils, blankets and groceries.”

If you would like to assist, please contact Emmanuel on 078 392 5078 or email him at manumusonza@gmail.com. You can also contact Masimba Murungweni on 083 254 0236.

Donations for those affected by the cyclone are piling up, but much more is needed.
