Charity carwash, great success!

The heart behind the initiative, Kabelo Matlhoko.

Brits – “During the winter season, school attendances drop. The reason behind this is that some students do not have proper school uniforms to keep them warm during the cold winter days,” said Kabelo Matlhoko from Brits in an interview with Platinum Weekly.

He approached local primary schools in Brits and managed to get lists of students in need. The lists contained the names of 136 learners who were in dire need of new school uniforms.

In an effort to raise funds, Kabelo hosted a charity car wash on 6 April at Johanne Mokolobetsi Sports ground in Brits. The aim of the event was to raise funds to buy shoes, socks, jerseys and sanitary towels for disadvantaged learners.

He sent letters to local mines and businesses and managed to organise a team of local people to help achieve the goal. He gathered a team consisting of Tshawaro Makgale, Tsholofelo Mosupi, Molinda Ramabao, Andrew Marobyane, Notsikelelo Rantho and Danny Dire. A local biker club, 222 Peace Riders, also stepped up to the plate.

Volunteers + community members + donation = success!

realised it was for a good cause, he donated R5,000 on the spot.

“We thank God for His guidance and thank everyone for supporting this event,” said Kabelo.

The items collected will be distributed on 30 April and Kabelo wants to urge community members to join. For more information contact Kabelo Matlhoko on 067 024 2739.

BURNING RUBBER!

Rustenburg – Car spinning was at its best during the N4 SPIN City Rustenburg that took place at Van Belkum Street on Sunday 7 April.

Once again, as has been the case in this hugely popular weekly event, massive clouds of smoke from the burning tyres of the spinning cars engulfed the area as engines roared loudly.

It was a show to remember as teams from Johannesburg tested their car spinning skills against our local counterparts. The N4 SPIN City Rustenburg, presented by Auto City Spares, is growing in popularity, and takes place every Sunday at 91 Van Belkum street.

Entrance to the event is R50 for adults and R30 for kids. For more information contact IQ Sheik on 083 891 1176.

GETTING READY FOR TAMMY TAYLOR MRS SOUTH AFRICA

Rustenburg – Lebotsang Chikwakwa from Madikwe near Rustenburg was recently announced as a Tammy Taylor Mrs South Africa semi-finalist for 2019 – out of a record number of entries received by the organisation. Her journey began on 1 March when she was invited, along with the other beautiful, sophisticated and married women from all over South Africa, for the second national casting and empowerment workshop held at Emperors Palace. Once selected, the semi-finalists attended weekend workshops to help prepare them for the journey ahead.

In an interview with Platinum Weekly Lebotsang said: “Being selected as a semi-finalist has given me more courage to get out of my comfort zone.”

Only 25 lucky women will be selected to continue the journey, as finalists, for Tammy Taylor Mrs South Africa and will be announced at the annual charity ball on 28 June at Emperors Palace.
