"In Association with North-West Debt Counselling"

283 ARRESTED IN 2 DAYS

Rustenburg/ Potchefstroom – The long arm of the law caught up with 283 suspects, who were arrested by the police between Tuesday 30 April and Wednesday 1 May during separate operations in various parts of the North West province.
Of this number, 108 arrests were made for assault and the remainder include: robbery, rape, malicious damage to property, contravening protection orders, burglary and theft. "Out of the 283 arrests, 26 were for crimes against women and children. The suspects were arrested at all seven policing clusters in the province. The suspects appeared before various courts on Friday 3 May," police spokesperson colonel Adèle Myburgh said. She added that 80 of the arrests were made in Klerksdorp and 78 in Rustenburg.

Police provincial commissioner for the North West, lieutenant Baile Motswenyane, applauded officers for bringing offenders to book. She said the arrests must send a clear message to perpetrators that crime does not pay.

BRINGING POLICE SERVICES CLOSER TO COMMUNITIES

Rustenburg/ Sun City – South African Police Service (SAPS) commander for the Rustenburg cluster, major general Arthur Adams, urged the community of Mabeskraal to play a key role in the fight against crime by working hand in glove with the law enforcement agency.
He made this remarks in Potchefstroom on Thursday 2 May, during the handover of two mobile Community Service Centres (CSC). The centres are expected to help fight crime for communities living in the Madikwe and Mabeskraal areas.
"The police have your best interest at heart. We are here to serve you, which is why we have brought these services to you," Arthur said. "You used to travel long distances to the Sun City police station to get services. Now, we are much more accessible to you."

Dagga lands four in jail

Rustenburg – Four people were arrested in Rustenburg and Tlhabane for contravening the Drugs and Drug Trafficking Act, as the fight against drugs shifts into high gear. The four were arrested during a multi-disciplinary operation on Wednesday 1 May.
During the operation, a total of 16 plastic bags of dagga were seized from one of the suspects, who was arrested along the R24. In Tlhabane, a further 21 packs of dagga were also seized and confiscated by the police.
In total, the bust is estimated to R6 200 in street value.
