

A community that sticks together

Rustenburg – Staam Saam Rustenburg Community Watch started as a normal neighbourhood watch.

After the strikes in 2012, the need for the community to stand together was greater than ever. From there, Staam Saam Rustenburg grew to what it is known as today.

SSR focuses on their immediate environment, Rustenburg. They ensure a safer and better place by means of patrols done in neighbourhoods and to aid families in the form of food and clothing. The organisation currently cares for about 3,000 people with food parcels and clothes on a monthly basis.

The famous Staam Saam Huis is never quiet and there is a constant flow of people that need help.

SSR relies solely on donations, items that cannot be given to the those in need are sold to make money to pay the rent for the Staam Saam Huis or buy more food. In an interview with Platinum Weekly Staam Saam Rustenburg Community Watch founder Naomi Kleinschmidt Pasino said: "We saw the need in the community, and we knew we had to do something. We see so many challenges everyday but by the grace of God and the help of the community, we can face them head on. I have shed so many tears for the people we help, and I always wish there were more that we could do. We need to stand together in this fight to make the world and Rustenburg a better place and that is what Staam Saam is all about."

JOIN THE FIGHT AGAINST CRIME

Rustenburg – Rustenburg Community Police Forum (CPF) launched a campaign on Tuesday 4 June to inform and involve the community of Rustenburg in the fight against crime.

They kicked off their campaign by handing out pamphlets to residents. Future plans include visiting schools and various institutions to make people aware and inspire the community to join the fight against crime.

This neighbourhood watch works in cooperation with the South African Police Services (SAPS) to make Rustenburg a safer place.

CPF believes that the residents of our city, have to protect themselves against the scourge of crime that penetrate our city. It is time that we rid ourselves and our loved ones from the criminals that threaten our lives and property.

By joining this growing organisation, you can become the eyes and ears of the local police. They need the cooperation of the community to effectively combat crime. The CPF is mandated by law to be the SAPS' partners in the fight against crime.

The benefits of joining the CPF means that you will be informed of crime hotspots, threats in your neighbourhood and in constant contact with other members.

Being part of CPF will require you to be vigilant and report all information on any suspicious activities. You can also join their dedicated patrol groups and various courses.

For more information contact 079 508 4488 or email exco@rustenburgcpf.co.za or visit their website www.rustenburgcpf.co.za. Only persons
