A COMMUNITY THAT STICKS TOGETHER

Rustenburg – Staam Saam Rustenburg Community Watch started as a normal neighbourhood watch.

After the strikes in 2012, the need for the community to stand together was greater than ever. From there, Staam Saam Rustenburg grew to what it is known as today.

SSR focuses on their immediate environment, Rustenburg. They ensure a safer and better place by means of patrols in neighbourhoods and they aid families in the form of food and clothing. The organisation currently cares for about 3,000 people with food parcels and clothes on a monthly basis.

The famous Staam Saam Huis is never quiet and there is a constant flow of people that need help. SSR relies solely on donations, items that cannot be given to the those in need are sold to make money to pay the rent for the Staam Saam Huis or buy more food. In an interview with Platinum Weekly Staam Saam Rustenburg Community Watch founder Naomi Kleinschmidt Pasino said: "We saw the need in the community, and we knew we had to do something. We see so many challenges everyday but by the grace of God and the help of the community, we can face them head on. I have shed so many tears for the people we help, and I always wish there were more that we could do. We need to stand together in this fight to make the world and Rustenburg a better place and that is what Staam Saam is all about."

For more information contact Naomi on 076 374 1129 or Juanita Pasino Louw on 083 444 6391. You can also visit the Staam Saam Huis at 5 President Mbeki Drive, Rustenburg.

GIVE A LITTLE, HELP A LOT

Rustenburg – Rustenburg's elderly needs our help. Growing old is not child's play.

Besides one's physical health deteriorating almost as fast as the price of health care increases, many of the country's elderly have been swindled out of their life saving by Ponzi schemes and 'sure-thing' investments.

For some, little things like replacing a light bulb or sewing a tear has become not only difficult, but a physically painful exercise. Having to depend on others to be able to go to the store or visit a friend, all the while spending your retirement years just trying to stay out of the way... often forgotten and left behind.

A large part of the elderly population is struggling to make ends meet on a meagre R1,780 South African Social Services Agency (SASSA) grant allowance per month. R1,800 can only go so far and often these retirees must make the choice between lifesaving medication and food. If your grandparents are anything like mine, they would never want to be an inconvenience, giving you the shirts off their backs to ensure that you had a future they were never afforded... Now is the time to give them that future!

The municipal flats throughout Rustenburg assist the elderly with affordable housing, but the small allowance from SASSA does not cover medical expenses, food, sundries and general costs. Having to worry about food can be soul crushing and adds to mental stress and a feeling of hopelessness.

Platinum Weekly's Local Love is a project to help lift the burden off our local elderly living in the various municipal flats in Rustenburg. With this project we will donate food and toiletries to the elderly to assist with their basic needs.

We invite you to participate by donating non-perishable food and toiletries. The handover of the food will take place in July. The logos of companies that donate towards this worthy cause will feature in in the Platinum Weekly issue after the handover, free of charge: terms and conditions apply.
