

ENCOURAGING THE YOUTH THROUGH SOCCER

Rustenburg – On Monday 17 June G&P Events hosted a fun-filled soccer day for charity in Boitekong. During the event, three teams from local primary schools; Faith Temple Academy, Abana Primary School and Tshirologang Primary School took part in the tournament. Tshirologang Primary School were the victors. Local soccer clubs - Boitekong Football Club (FC), Yorona FC, Real Saviours FC and Selesele FC participated in the senior division. The winning team in this division was Selesele FC. The aim of the day was to encourage en help players reach their dream while having fun. Various sponsors included McDonalds, KFC, Shoprite and members of the Biotekong community who worked closely together to make this day a success. The donations went towards supplying food to the players, school uniforms and cash prizes for the winning teams. In an interview with Platinum Weekly director of G&P Events, Lerato Ntwala, said: "It was a very special day to see dreams coming true. I used to play soccer and I always wished to do something special that would uplift the youth and community. I enjoyed watching the matches between the schools. It was such a fun day!" G&P Events would like to extend a special thanks to the South African Police Service (SAPS), public safety and emergency services for their presence as well as to the teachers, coaches and the community of Boitekong for the support.

SEMI-FINALE 2019 SUPERUGBY

Jaguares vs Brumbies
In Buenos Aires behaal die Jaguares 'n puik oorwinning oor die Brumbies en wen gemaklik 39-7. Met hierdie geskiedkundige oorwinning gaan die trotse Argentynse span nou ook vir die eerste keer ooit in die finaal van die Superreeks uitdraf. Dit is voorwaar 'n prestasie! Hulle het die afgelope drie jaar 13de en toe 10de geëindig, en verlede jaar verloor hulle in die kwart-finaal teen die Leeus.
Die Argentynse Puma haker Agustin Creevy het dit duidelik gemaak dat hulle nie die Saders vrees nie en dat die reis Christchurch toe beslis nie 'n 'mission impossible' is nie. Die Argentynse coach, Gonzalo Quesada, is ook vol vertroue en weet dat 'n helse stryd voorlê om die Saders op hulle tuisveld te klop. Dit is beslis nie 'n taak vir sussies nie ou grote!
Crusaders vs Hurricanes
In Christchurch is seker een van die beste games gespeel in vanjaar se Superreeks ou grote. Skitter ruggas deur beide spanne was aan die orde van die dag en geen genade is gegee of ontvang nie. Die Saders wen 30-26 en dring vir die derde agtereenvolgende jaar deur na die finaal – en wat 'n prestasie is dit nie vir coach Scott Robinson nie, wat die span nou vir die derde jaar afrig! Toevallig het Scott ook drie keer as speler die trofee gewen, 1988-2000.
Die Hurricanes het met reg gal gebrak oor 'n beslissing in die doodsnikke van die game waar 'n Sader speler die bal vorentoe geklap het en die blinde mol het dit nie raakgesien nie... Maar 'as' is verbrande hout.

Die Crusaders se afrigtingspan en spelers gaan nie die eindstryd ligtelik opneem nie met coach Scott wat twee weke gelede al begin voorberei het om teen die Argentyne in die finaal te speel.
Die laaste keer toe die twee spanne teen mekaar meegeding het, was Julie 2018 in Buenos Aires en dié game het die Saders 40-14 gewen. Robinson het dit duidelik gemaak dat hulle huiswerk deeglik gedoen is en weet die Argentyne se spel het met dag en nag verbeter en verdien 'n plek in vanjaar se finaal. Twee sleutelspelers Ryan Crotty en Scott Barret sal eger nie beskikbaar wees in die finaal nie.
In hierdie finaal draf die Saders met dertien All Blacks en die Jaguares met veertien Puma spelers uit... amper 'n internasionale toets!
Nag ou grote...
