

APPLY FOR SASSA'S GRANT-IN-AID

Old age and disability grant recipients are urged to apply for South African Social Security Agency's (SASSA's) Grant-in-Aid. It has come to the attention of SASSA that most frail beneficiaries, due to age or persons living with disabilities, require twenty-four-hour care but are not receiving the SASSA Grant-in-Aid – and could qualify for it.

is meant to assist beneficiaries with additional needs for his or her daily care," said SASSA regional executive manager Zodwa Mvulane. However, applicants should be aware that they will be assessed by SASSA contracted doctors in order to ascertain that he or she needs constant care.

Beneficiaries who wish to apply for the Grant-in-Aid grant should be in receipt of an older age grant or disability grant and require full-time attendance by another person owing to his or her physical or mental disability. The applicant should also not be cared for in an institution that receives subsidies from the government. "This is an additional grant of R420, which if the application is successful, the beneficiary will receive on top of the grant already received. It does so efficiently by utilising an extensive existing capital footprint. Kukama is a project that lends itself to scaling up or down and will form the production base for the broader Eland complex. The mining method to be implemented at Kukama is well-known and well proven. Our focus will be on safe, quality, long-life production, whilst creating sustainable long-term employment in the platinum industry."

Applications for this grant can be done at your nearest SASSA office. If an applicant is unable to visit the office, a home visit request can be arranged.

NORTHAM PLATINUM APPROVES KUKAMA PROJECT AT ELAND MINE

Brits – Northam Platinum is pleased to advise that mining operations at the Kukama shaft situated at its Eland mine complex near Brits will recommence in the new financial year (F2020).

This significant development comes after the successful conclusion of a feasibility study for Kukama shaft.

Northam Platinum press release extracts, 26 June 2019

Northam purchased a 100% interest in the Eland mine from Glencore Operations South Africa Proprietary Limited in February 2017 for a cash consideration of R175 million. Eland mine was placed on care and maintenance in 2015 and Northam continued to manage it as such whilst undertaking the feasibility study for the Kukama shaft.

Northam Platinum chief executive Paul Dunne points to the positive investment return demonstrated by the Kukama project, which comfortably exceeds the company's weighted average cost of capital. "In addition," says Dunne, "the project further diversifies the group's operations and production capacity and
