

BCC PROVIDES FLEXIBLE LEARNING OPTIONS

Rustenburg – Boston City Campus (BCC) demonstrated its flexible options when it comes to providing tertiary education during a networking session held on Wednesday 10 July at their Business College in Rustenburg. The interactive session was attended by close to 80 people, who were all eager to learn more about how one of the leading colleges in the country goes about the process of educating the many students that pass through its doors. “We are a growing college. We are a flexible institution because we cater for both part-time students and full-time students,” said manager of BCC in Randburg, Francinah Chauke. BCC sales representative Clifford Thipe gave a graphic explanation of how their 45 locations across the country sets them apart. “We are also accredited with international bodies and our tuition fees include the prescribed textbooks that students will use,” Clifford said. One of the college’s graduates, Kgalalelo Mojaki, explained how the tutors assisted her to obtain a diploma in marketing management. “I was studying from home and the process was not as hard as I thought, because I would communicate with the tutors and receive helpful feedback,” she said. Invited guests also had an opportunity to interact with staff members of the college. Sikhholiwe Mashele, who is the manager of BCC in Rustenburg described the networking session as a success. “The session also provided an opportunity for all of us to network, share ideas and establish mutually beneficial partnerships,” she said.

DANKIE MAHINDRA RUSTENBURG VIR DIE MIELIES!

Rustenburg – Boere Droogtehelp SA is ‘n organisasie wat hulself toewy daaraan om boere regoor Suid-Afrika wat geaffekteer word deur die droogte te help met voer, kos en enige ander boerderybehoefes. Die diere kry bitterwaar en boere het dringend mielies nodig om hul voeding aan te vul omdat hul vee baie swak is. Mahindra Rustenburg wat deel vorm van die Platina Motor Group het die pleit gehoor en dadelik ingegryp om die boere by te staan deur 25 sakke mielies en 25 sakke molasse meel te skenk. Die skenking is aan Boere droogtehelp SA oorhandig op Dinsdag 9 Julie. In ‘n onderhoud met Platinum Weekly het diensbestuurder van Platina Motor Group Stian von Wielligh gesê: “Boere speel so groot rol in ons land en ons kon nie net terugstaan en kyk hoe hulle lei onder die droogte nie, daarom het ons besluit om te help.” “Ons is baie dankbaar vir die donasie, dit is wonderlik dat Mahindra Rustenburg bereid was om ons boere by te staan in die moeilike tye. Elke donasie maak werklik so groot verskil in ‘n boer se lewe,” het stigter van Boere Droogtehelp SA Chris van Beljon gesê. Stigters Chris en JJ du Preez wil graag ‘n beroep op die gemeenskap doen om hulle te ondersteun met die projek. Om een vraag voer by ‘n boer te kry, beloop tussen R14,000 en R20,000. Trokke en brandstof om die voer by hul bestemming af te lewer bly steeds hul grootste uitdaging. Hulle het ook ‘n seksie 18A sertifikaat sodat hul ‘n kwitansie kan voorsien vir skenkers se belastingdoeleindes. Vir meer inligting, skakel Chris van Beljon op 082 961 6620 of JJ du Preez op 082 567 0363.

RLM MAYOR MOTIVATES THE YOUTH

Mayor of Rustenburg, councillor Mpho Khunou addressing the youth.

Rustenburg – The executive mayor of Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM), councillor Mpho Khunou, engaged with the youth of Rustenburg at the Career Master Class and Expo 2019 on Wednesday 26 June held at the Civic Centre. He quoted various world-renowned leaders and motivational speakers including former president of South Africa Nelson Mandela and doctor Myles Munroe, whose teachings shoulder relevance to the life of the youth today. The youth of Rustenburg have since the inception of youth month - June, been engaged in a wide variety of activities including sports, business, education, farming, and sessions facilitated by the RLM involving stakeholders with the intension of empowering and imparting knowledge among the youth.

GIVE A LITTLE, HELP A LOT

Rustenburg – Rustenburg’s elderly needs our help. Growing old is not child’s play. Besides one’s physical health deteriorating almost as fast as the price of health care increases, many of the country’s elderly have been swindled out of their life saving by Ponzi schemes and ‘sure-thing’ investments. For some, little things like replacing a light bulb or sewing a tear has become not only difficult, but a physically painful exercise. Having to depend on others to be able to go to the store or visit a friend, all the while spending your retirement years just trying to stay out of the way... often forgotten and left behind. A large part of the elderly population is struggling to make ends meet on a meagre R1,780 South African Social Services Agency (SASSA) grant allowance per month. R1,800 can only go so far and often these retirees must make the choice between lifesaving medication and food. If your grandparents are anything like mine, they would never want to be an inconvenience, giving you the shirts off their backs to ensure that you had a future they were never afforded... Now is the time to give them that future! The municipal flats throughout Rustenburg assist the elderly with affordable housing, but the small allowance from SASSA does not cover medical expenses, food, sundries and general costs. Having to worry about food can be soul crushing and adds to mental stress and a feeling of hopelessness. Platinum Weekly’s Local Love is a project to help lift the burden off our local elderly living in the various municipal flats in Rustenburg. With this project we will donate food and toiletries to the elderly to assist with their basic needs. We invite you to participate by donating non-perishable food and toiletries. The handover of the food will take place in July. The logos of companies that donate towards this worthy cause will feature in in the Platinum Weekly issue after the handover, free of charge: terms and conditions apply.

Donations can be dropped off at Platinum Weekly’s offices at 50 Marais street. For more information contact Danika Pretorius on 081 579 7000.
