

TEEING OFF AT RUSTENBURG GOLF CLUB

Rustenburg – The winter season does not seem to have slowed down the competitive spirit of local golfers, if the activity at the Rustenburg Golf Club is anything to go by.

A ladies open day and an exciting winter classics tournament were among some of the golf events that were held at the club in June and July. The open day, hosted on Thursday 27 June, was made the more interesting by the R50,000 hole in one prize.

Rustenburg Golf Club manager Ilse Marais told Platinum Weekly that the winter classics tournament on Sunday 7 July was a huge success. "There was a huge turnout. Participants from Potchefstroom and many other areas attended. We are happy with the tournament," she said. Well done to Johan Krugel whose excellent performance won him a place in the inter-provincial team (IPT) that will represent the North West during a tournament to be played at Mbombela Golf Club in September. This is the fourth IPT team that Johan has been selected for and Rustenburg Golf Club is extremely proud.
