

NOTORIOUS CRIMINALS BEHIND BARS

North West – Three men who were among the North West province's most wanted criminals, are now behind bars after they were nabbed during a two-day raiding operation by the police.

A total of 249 culprits were arrested for various offences during the operation, which started on Wednesday 17 July and ended the following day.

Among the suspects taken into custody are Thabiso Selloane (22), Michael Ntshingila (33) and Farai Ndambani (22), who have all been linked to serious crimes.

Thabiso and Michael stand accused of rape and were both remanded in custody when they appeared separately in different magistrate courts.

Farai is accused of murder, which occurred in Hartbeespoortdam in 2013. The other suspects arrested during the operation were charged with crimes such as assault, common robbery, malicious damage to property, theft, business robberies as well as crimes against women and children. They have made court appearances at the various magistrate courts.

UNLICENSED GUNMAN ARRESTED

The unlicensed gun had been seized by police.

Rustenburg – A 34-year old man will have to explain to the courts why he was keeping an unlicensed firearm under his pillow after he was arrested on Monday 21 July during a crime intelligence driven operation by the police.

The unlicensed firearm and four live rounds were discovered by the police during a search when they were at Yizo Yizo informal settlement.

"Seventeen rock drugs were also found inside the pocket of his trousers. He was arrested for the possession of an unlicensed firearm, ammunition and drugs," sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi explained.

Questions over woman's killing ?

Rustenburg – A 42-year old woman was shot and killed in the early hours of Tuesday 23 July in Tlhabane West.

The motives for her murder is unclear. Police are investigating the murder.

Rustenburg police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi said the woman was approached by unknown suspects at the gate of her house as she was about to leave for work.

"She was shot once in the upper body. Nothing appears to have been stolen," Ofentse added.

The police in Tlhabane are appealing to the public with information relating to the incident to urgently contact detective captain Magano on 082 499 4773.

ARMED MEN PLUNDER FARMHOUSE

Rustenburg – Four armed men made away with a television set, cellphones and other appliances when they robbed a farmhouse in Doornhoek on Monday 15 July. Police have confirmed the incident.

According to information at hand, the men approached a group of farmworkers at around 19:00 and held them at gunpoint. After taking the domestic worker hostage and forcing her to open the house, they looted the farmhouse. They tied up all the workers and their families before fleeing the scene on foot.

One of the workers, who managed to wrangle loose, informed the owner of the farm who contacted a security company for assistance.

One of the suspects is believed to have been wearing a red jacket with black print on it while the other three wore grey sweaters when they committed the crime. All suspects speak Sepedi and are believed to be between the ages of 28 and 30 years. If you have any information regarding the whereabouts of the four suspects, please contact police in Hekpoort on 014 576 9100 or in Rustenburg on 014 590 4115.
