

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Photographic Society held their monthly meeting on Wednesday 17 July. They acknowledged the talented Simon Fletcher and Hannes van Jaarsveld, who were awarded the winners of the open category for July. The society meets every third Wednesday of the month at NG Proteapark at 18:30. Their next meeting will take place on 21 August.

Watching you by Hannes van Jaarsveld.

A COMMUNITY THAT STICKS TOGETHER

Rustenburg – Staans Saam Rustenburg Community Watch started as a normal neighbourhood watch.

After the strikes in 2012, the need for the community to stand together was greater than ever. From there, Staans Saam Rustenburg grew to what it is known as today.

SSR focuses on their immediate environment, Rustenburg. They ensure a safer and better place by means of patrols done in neighbourhoods and to aid families in the form of food and clothing. The organisation currently cares for about 3,000 people with food parcels and clothes on a monthly basis.

The famous Staans Saam Huis is never quiet and there is a constant flow of people that need help. SSR relies solely on donations, items that cannot be given to the those in need are sold to make money to pay the rent for the Staans Saam Huis or buy more food. In an interview with Platinum Weekly Staans Saam Rustenburg Community Watch founder Naomi Kleinschmidt Pasino said: "We saw the need in the community, and we knew we had to do something. We see so many challenges everyday but by the grace of God and the help of the community, we can face them head on. I have shed so many tears for the people we help, and I always wish there were more that we could do. We need to stand together in this fight to make the world and Rustenburg a better place and that is what Staans Saam is all about."
