

CELEBRATING WOMEN IN LAW ENFORCEMENT

Rustenburg – Mark the start of women's month, August, women from different law enforcement agencies – ranging from Trans Kalahari Corridor, local, provincial and national traffic, Home Affairs, RAF and the police – conducted roadblocks on the R565, R510 and N4 on 1 and 2 August to address road safety. Additionally, gifts enhancing safety such as red triangles, were handed out at the Rustenburg taxi rank on 1 August. A formal function was held at the Rustenburg Civic Centre that was well attended by about 250 female law enforcement officers.

LEARNERS MARCHING FOR SUPPORT

Rustenburg – Learners from Talita Koum Combined Academy took to the streets of Rustenburg on Saturday 3 August to raise awareness for fellow pupils in the community that don't have access to quality education. This school is a registered Non-Profit Organisation (NPO) that not only provides the highest level of education to all students. During the march they invited the community to support their cause and assist to give their friends at less advantage schools the same opportunities. In an interview with Platinum Weekly Talita Koum Combined Academy principal Vida Schutte said: "We want the children to not only see this as a school but as a second home. We build their foundation on faith and love for God first and foremost and with enough support we can change the lives of even more children." To support their cause or for more information contact the office on 014 592 5869.
