THREE SPAR BRANCHES CLOSED FOR 'STOCK TAKE'

Rustenburg – SPAR customers who went to their favourite Tuscany, Safari and Square Spar on Thursday 17 October, were met by closed doors and security guards.

According to the signage on the doors, all three stores were closed due to stock take. However, the Spar group's legal advisor Gordon Pentecost confirmed that the matter regarding these shops is currently before the courts, and that he could not give any further comment.

Social media is ablaze with theories as to the closure – but nothing could be confirmed at the time of going to print.

In an interview with Platinum Weekly, one customer said: "This is very inconvenient as it is lunch time. It is the only time I have to do my shopping."

The reasons behind the temporary closures and when the SPAR outlets will re-open their doors, are unknown. Let's hope everything will soon be up and running at our favourite stores.
