Boxing coach Mathews Padi is proud of his award.

COMMITMENT PAYS OFF FOR BOXING COACH

Rustenburg – Mathews Padi, who develops local young boxers, scooped a special accolade at this year's North West provincial sports awards.

During the awards, which were held in Klerksdorp on Friday 18 October, Mathews received the community developer award for 2019 from provincial member of the executive committee (MEC) Virginia Tlhabi. The award is in recognition of his efforts in training young boxers and helping them to reach their full potential in this sport.

On Friday 5 April 2019, Platinum Weekly reported how Tisetso Padi (Mathews' son) won his first fight as a professional boxer. Mathews said his son is one of two boxers from the North West province who have so far turned professional under his tutelage.

"I have been a boxing coach since 1993. Winning an award such as this one is something that I will cherish for the rest of my life," he said.

For more information regarding training, contact Mathews on 076 530 4204.
