MOVEMBER – CHANGING THE FACE OF MEN’S HEALTH

Rustenburg – In the month formerly known as November, over half a Million Mo-Bro's and Mo-Sista's across the world rally to raise funds and awareness for the often-ignored issues surrounding men's health.

Movember is an annual event that dares men to grow a moustache during the month of November in support of issues such as anxiety, prostate cancer, testicular cancer and suicide.

This movement aims to increase early cancer detection, diagnosis and effective treatments, and ultimately reduce the number of preventable deaths. From humble beginnings, the Movember movement started in 2003 and has grown into a truly global event that has made epic progress in men's health. Movember is the leading global men's health charity, funding over 1,250 projects in 21 countries worldwide. In South Africa, besides implementing global programmes, the Men's Foundation develops and invests into men's survivorship and research programmes. A more recent addition includes Project Peacock. Project Peacock provides the option of Low Dose Rate (LDR) brachytherapy to prostate cancer patients. As an advocate for Men's Health and as a member of the Cancer Alliance, the Men's Foundation has also been acknowledged for its contribution in developing the first ever policy and guidelines for treating prostate cancer and will be published next year by the Department of Health.

Platinum Weekly spoke to two moustache wearing men about the importance of Movember.

“Men face various health issues that we never talk about. The Movember movement is a great way to get the conversation started. I wear my moustache with pride and only my wife and my beard-stylist Robyn Lehmann are allowed to touch it!” said Lewêlana Multiple Solutions owner Gys Schwim.

Van Velden Duffey attorney Janus Olivier said: “Next to a dog, a man's moustache is his closest companion. I love my moustache. It stores my food, dangles majestically in the wind and raises awareness regarding men's health. What more can you ask for?”

Sign up as a Mo Bro or Mo Sista at www.za.movember.com and choose to grow, host or move for men's health. All funds raised will go to awareness campaigns, research and survivor programmes linked to men's health in South Africa.
