FAMILY LOSES EVERYTHING IN FIRE

ARSON ATTACK?

Rustenburg – A family home lies in ruins after an alleged arson attack in the early hours of Monday 2 December.
Francois Steward and his wife Franushca fell asleep watching a movie at around 01:30. Franushca woke Francois to check on the barking dogs. When he peeked through the window, he saw two suspects jumping over the fence. Thinking the danger was over, he snuggled in again. About 20 minutes later, he awoke anxiously, gasping for air.

Rustenburg – On 3 December, the Highveld experienced gale force winds that resulted in the collapse of a part of the roof and wall of the Sportsman's Warehouse store at Platinum Square shopping centre.

Thankfully there were no injuries, although customers and staff on scene received support.

An investigation continues to assure the building's readiness for the coming rainy season. Platinum Square is open and trading, however Sportsman's Warehouse will remain closed for the time being.

The Platinum Square management team thanks the community for their continued support.
