

PHOTOGRAPHERS OF NOTE

Rustenburg – At their last meeting for 2019 on Wednesday 20 November, the Rustenburg Photographic Society announced the following photographers as the winners in their respective categories. In the technical category Marinda Badenhorst captured the theme of light trails perfectly with her photo Infinity. Simon Fletcher's Back Alley Door was the winner in the set category with the theme, back alleys, while Anja Smith captured the perfect moment in the cell phone category with her photo titled Moving my crap. The Rustenburg Photography Society, which is open for anyone interested, has wrapped up its activities for the year. For more information, contact club chairperson Simon Fletcher on 082 371 9867 or vice chairperson Ronel Broderick on 082 451 2999.

BUDDING KARATEKAS ACHIEVE GRADINGS

Rustenburg – Tuesday 3 December was a day to remember for two young karate students who were recognised for their hard work and commitment. Excitement was written on the faces of Keabetswe Tlhage and Tiang Ramaidi as they received their gradings at Rustenburg Noord Primary School.

A proud sensei Isaac Nkomo, who teaches them martial arts, was present when they were awarded their gradings. Keabetswe passed with a 100% rate from white to yellow while Tiang received a promotion from yellow 1 to orange 1. The grading panel was made up of sensei Isaac and sensei Chris Seabelo.

For more information about training, contact sensei Isaac on 078 741 6282 or 079 436 3129 or drop him an email at isaackarateclub@gmail.com.

FORMER PLAYERS PRAISE YOUTH CUP

Rustenburg – The Athletico Youth Cup, which was recently held in Rustenburg, has been lauded by prominent former South African professional players for its important role in developing football and giving a platform for young players to showcase their skills.

The tournament marked its 10th anniversary by delivering a top of the range football showdown which brought together many junior teams from in and around Rustenburg. Sosville Tigers emerged as winners of the tournament, which lived up to its billing as one of the best local football competitions.

Individual accolades were also handed to Otsile Mpuru (defender of the tournament), Omatla Kgatse (midfielder of the tournament), Motlatsi Maletle (goalkeeper of the tournament) and Tshepo Botlhoko (top goal scorer of the tournament).

And with the Athletico Football Club (AFC) team set to travel to England next year to participate in the 2020 Manchester International Cup, the players all hope they will be able to hone their skills while competing at the home ground of one of the biggest football clubs in the world.

Sosville Tigers bask in the glory of winning the Youth Cup.

Player of the Tournament Odirile Molefe with, among others, South African football legends Jabulani Mendu, Fabian McCarthy, Joseph Makhanya and AFC coach Coldrin Coetzee.
