

PLATINUM
Weekblad/Weekly

SPORT

SPORT Super Rugby 2020 Week 7

Chiefs vs Hurricanes

In Hamilton verloor die Chiefs 27-24 teen die Hurricanes. Drama tot in die 84ste minuut toe Jaco Peyper 'n omstrede beslissing in 'n strafskop vir die Canes verander. Jordie Barret slaag met die starfskop en die Canes stap as weners van die veld. Gatland het blykbaar soos 'n draak vuur gespoeg.

Die Chiefs is nou derde op die NZ log met 19 punte terwyl die Canes vierde is met 17 punte. Beide spanne het ses games gespeel.

Sunwolves vs Crusaders

Die Japanese Wolwe se tjank word vir die hoeveelste keer die seisoen gehoor en verloor 49-14. Die Wolwe het die 14 punte in die eerste helfte aangeteken. Dit is eintlik maar beter dat hulle nie meer in die Super Reeks gaan speel nie ou grote.

Die Sadlers is tans eerste op die NZ log met 23 punte na ses games en tweede op die algehele log.

Blues vs Leeus

In Auckland hardloop die Blues die Leeus deurmekaar en wen verspot maklik 43-10. Hulle was swak, baie swak.

Groot kommer he ers in die Leeukamp. So erg dat hulle nou twee weke in kwarantyn geplaas is. Die goeie nuus is dat hulle gelukkig nie rugby hoef te speel nie, hulle kan maar net lê. Net 'n entjie van hulle buurman, die koorsige bul.

Reds vs Bulle

Van die afskop af klim die Bulle verwoed in en glo dit of nie, na net 16 minute loop hulle 17-0 voor! Nou of daar 'n rooksein op die horison verskyn het wat 'n virus se naam uitgespel het, sal ons seker nooit weet nie. Die Bulle verloor 41-17, ja boet, die telling is net so.

Dit moet geweldig swaar op rugga ondersteuners se harte lê dat hulle helde indirek deur 'n virus gered is en dadelik moes terugkeer huis toe om in hulle kamp te kom loop lê, ja ou grote, net lê. Kwarantyn. Geen ruggas asseblief. Wees rustig.

Die Reds is na sewe games derde op die Aussie log met dertien punte.

Haaie vs Stormers

In die Haaitenk wen die Durbaniete welverdiend hierdie klipharde game 24-14. Dit was 'n helse stryd maar ook erg omstrede. Die Haaitenk het stil geword na net sewe sekondes na die afskop toe Johan du Toit die Haai skrummie, Louis Schreuder, uit die poel loop. Die televisie skeidsregter se rooikaart aanbeveling is deur AJ Jacobs van die hand gewys en Du Toit moet toe net vir tien minute boefkas toe, maar die hartseer is dat Schreuder met 'n draagbaar van die veld moes gaan en die res van game mis! Op die dag was die Haaie die beste span en het verdien om hierdie SA derby te wen. Met hierdie oorwinning beklee hulle nou die eerste plek op die SA log en die algehele eerste plek op die superlog. Die Stormers het afgeskuif tot die sewende plek.

Jaguars vs Highlanders

Afgelas weens Covid-19

Brumbies 47 - 14 Waratahs

Die Super Reeks is tydelik opgeskort wees die KORONAVIRUS tot verdere kennisgewing.
Nag ou grote...

YOUNG KAITLIN IS AIMING FOR THE TOP

Rustenburg – She may only be eight-years old, but Kaitlin Kruger is showing that intelligence, a positive outlook towards life and an attitude of determination is key towards achieving success.

The young model made a huge impression at the International Junior Miss South Africa pageant, held at Sun City from Thursday 27 February to 1 March.

Her pretty face, smile and intelligence wowed the judges and she was crowned North West provincial winner as well as third runner-up in the 7 – 9 years age group. She is very grateful to everyone who made it possible for her to achieve this milestone.

Kruger, who started her modelling career at the age of six by joining R&B Modelling School, is on the way to the top!

Besides her achievement at the International Junior Miss South Africa pageant, she has acquitted herself well in numerous other competitions.

She has also touched people's hearts with her kind and loving personality and willingness to always go the extra mile to support and motivate her friends and fellow models.

Kruger is passionate about getting involved in initiatives that uplift her community and her love of animals makes her always willing to lend a helping hand at the Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA).

Her favourite subject is mathematics.

The motto she lives by is a simple one: Always smile to the world but never let the world change your smile!

Kaitlin Kruger is passionate about modelling.

Kaitlin Kruger is proud about her award. Photo Credit: Retha Kruger.

A GREAT WEEKEND FOR PROTEA ATLETIEKKLUB

Rustenburg – It was an eventful weekend for the athletes of Protea Atletiekkklub.

The mother and son duo Leandri Williamson and Scott Williamson made waves on the tracks during the Athletics North West North (ANWN) championships on Friday 13 March. Leandri came in second for both the 800m and 200m in the female division and Scott was also second in the 800m sub-youth boy's division. Dineo Silinza who also participated in the ANWN championships took first place in the 800m and second in the 400m Sub-Youth girls. The Scholtz family had a fun outing when they participated in the Dullstroom Highland Gate trail run on 14 March. Lean Scholtz came in first overall in the 6km, Karina Scholtz came in second in the 6km female division, Kaylen Scholtz came in second in the 6km junior female division and Leon Scholtz was the overall first-place winner in the 11km. They certainly proved that those who run together, have fun together.

The club also had three athletes who participated in the 30th addition of the 'Om die Dam' 21km Race on 14 March.

Congratulations to Magda Haasbroek for obtaining a second place in the veteran female division, Willem Odendaal for his fourth place in the veteran male division and Florence Bruwer for her sixth place in the female open category.

From left: Magda Haasbroek, Willem Odendaal and Florence Bruwer.

Leandri Williamson (left) and Scott Williamson.

Dineo Silinza (middle) had a podium finish.

From left: Kaylen Scholtz, Leon Scholtz, Karina Scholtz and Lean Scholtz.