Rustenburg – The National African Federated Chamber of Commerce and Industry (NAFCOC) is sceptical about the capacity of emerging shopping malls to bring about meaningful economic development for their local communities.

The construction of Rustenburg Mall, located along the Swartruggens Road (R104) near the Rustenburg Golf Club, developed at a fast pace prior to the national lockdown. Once completed, the mall will serve the huge commuter market travelling daily to and from Rustenburg as well as more than 80,000 households in Tlhabane, Tlhabane West, Karlienpark, Geelhoutpark, Proteapark and other areas.

However, North West Province NAFCOC spokesperson Tshepang Ramosepele told Platinum Weekly that while the project might provide employment for some local members of the community, it could also have devastating effects on small businesses. "Many malls which are springing up in our townships do not translate into meaningful economic emancipation and perpetuate the culture of the usual multinationals benefiting from the poor majority."
