WINTER IS HERE

READ MORE ON PAGE 20.

Gerhard and Marilene Kleynhans, embracing the winter cold.

Rustenburg – The official start of winter is on Monday 1 June, however everyone had to put on their jackets on Wednesday morning. To some it might be a sigh of relief and a means of escaping Rustenburg's scorching heat... to others it might be a nuisance to unpack the winter woollies. Most of the trees have started to shed their leaves and nature is flaunting hues of brown and beige dancing in the wind. For as long as I can remember, the Rustenburg Show, historically held on the last weekend in May, was the opening act of winter. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and resulting lockdown, this winter will have an unusual start – change is upon us and we have no choice but to adapt.
