¹ James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes scattered among the nations: Greetings. ² Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, ³ because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. ⁴ Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. ⁵ If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you. ⁶ But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt, because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. ⁷ That person should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. ⁸ Such a person is double-minded and unstable in all they do.
⁹ Believers in humble circumstances ought to take pride in their high position.
¹⁰ But the rich should take pride in their humiliation—since they will pass away like a wild flower. ¹¹ For the sun rises with scorching heat and withers the plant; its blossom falls and its beauty is destroyed. In the same way, the rich will fade away even while they go about their business.
¹² Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him. ¹³ When tempted, no one should say, “God is tempting me.” For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone; ¹⁴ but each person is tempted when they are dragged away by their own evil desire and enticed. ¹⁵ Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death. ¹⁶ Don’t be deceived, my dear brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows. ¹⁸ He chose to give us birth through the word of truth, that we might be a kind of firstfruits of all he created.

NEW KING JAMES VERSION (NKJV)

HAVE YOUR SAY BACK TO SCHOOL

Rustenburg – The reopening of schools has been met with mixed feelings and continues to be a sensitive subject as the COVID-19 cases in South Africa, and many other parts of the world, continue to surge.

Platinum Weekly had a chat with parents and concerned members of the community. Here is what they had to say.

“I think allowing children to go back to school puts them at a higher risk of being infected with COVID-19. We all know how playful young kids are. I do not think they can manage to wear a mask for long periods of time.

Noma Mpofu

“I think we must appreciate that internet facilities and social media are not available to all learners or their parents, especially those in remote areas. This makes it difficult to effectively implement home schooling or online learning.
Schools must continue operating and the emphasis should instead be on managing COVID-19 and making sure it does not spread so rapidly.”

Newton Mpofu

“Young and older learners must be taught about the importance of social distancing, sanitising and other COVID-19 preventative measures while they are in school. Understanding and implementing these measures will help them to limit the spread at school and at home.”

Francois Viljoen

“You have to look at it from both sides. Education is important and learners must go to school so that they can obtain their matric. This must not be compromised by COVID-19... The virus could be with us for years.”
